WEATHERVANE MUSIC

Weathervane Music is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, whose home is in the Fishtown neighborhood of Philadelphia. Our mission is to connect people through the practice of supporting, engaging with, and creating new music.

Weathervane produces Shaking Through, a video documentary series highlighting exceptional artists and their important stories of creative self-expression, all as we record one of their brand new songs in the studio. This extraordinary series, which has produced over 60 episodes since 2009, is enjoyed by people who love music, supporters of the arts, and aspiring musicians around the world.
